

Goal - A confident creator - To happily experiment, explore, experience and discuss their own musical, role play, craft and art creations with confidence and with some detail.

First milestone	Beginning to be involved in pretend play and starting to explore different materials.
Second milestone	Starting to develop stories around small world toys and role play.
Third milestone	Expresses feelings and ideas through singing, musical instruments and art. Explores colour mixing with paint.
Final milestone	Uses their imagination and prior knowledge to build and adapt their role play and model creations.