

Goal - A ready to go wow writer! - To build up whole body, arm and hand strength through play activities and focussed sessions. To enjoy mark making and emergent writing, including representing their own name.

First milestone

Notices some prints around them and is able to make simple marks.

Second milestone

Beginning to build core strength through play activities.
Enjoys drawing freely and is beginning to use one handed tools.

Third milestone

Developing muscle strength through large movements.
Beginning to give meaning to marks they make, including their name.

Final milestone

Shows increasing strength and control when using tools and pencils etc.

	Beginning to use letters that can be recognised including in their own name.
