

Why is York a tourist destination? - KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

Key Vocabulary:
 Equator, N and S hemisphere, Tropic of Cancer, Tropic of Capricorn Resources, Natural, Man-made, Prime Meridian / Greenwich Meridian / 0° longitude, A and B roads, Place of interest, Contour lines

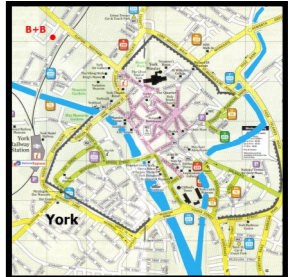

Use grid references and directional language to navigate around York.

Identify physical and human features of York:
 Primary: farming and forestry
 Secondary: chocolate factory and manufacturing
 Tertiary: schools, universities, shops, York Minster.

Why is York a tourist destination?
 What attracts people to York?
 How can we make people want to visit there?

Identifying the countries of the UK: England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.
 Rivers of the UK including Thames and Severn.
 Mountains of the UK including Snowdon and Ben Nevis.
 Counties of the UK including Shropshire, Northumberland, Somerset and Greater London.
 Cities of the UK including Birmingham and Manchester.
 Where is York?

River Ouse

River Foss

Conduct interviews and questionnaires with people in York.
 Consider why people in York and how they travelled there.

Comparing Clee Hill as a rural area to York as an urban area.

York Minster

York City Walls

