

KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER—Local Study: Our Homes

Substantive Knowledge:

Recognise similarities and differences between houses from the past and houses today.

Disciplinary Knowledge:

Identify similarities and differences from the past to now. How are homes different from the past to today?

Use artefacts to answer simple questions about houses.

Identify what it was like in the past.

How did electricity change the way we live?

Alexander Graham Bell was a Scottish inventor.

He was born on March 3rd 1847 in Edinburgh.

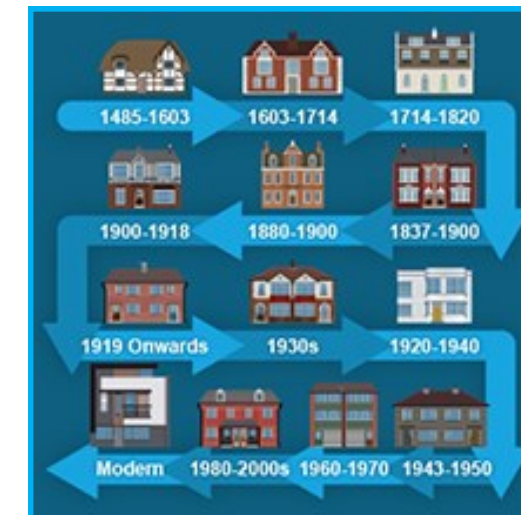

Alexander Graham-Bell invented the telephone.

How have houses changed over time? How have household items changed?

Key Vocabulary:

A long time ago, before I was born, before my parents were born, before my grandparents were born

What do we like our homes to look like?

What do you think homes in the past were like?

How do homes of the past help us to understand what life was like at that time?

Blists Hill: How has Telford changed over time? What were the houses like? What were the shops like? How were items paid for and wrapped? How has that changed over time?

Squatter's Cottage

Doctor's House

What were the houses of Clee Hill like in the past? How are they different to

How were houses in the Victorian times different?

They didn't have central heating, no double glazing and flooring and walls wouldn't have been insulated.

Blists Hill: Were all houses the same? Did the rich and poor live the same? How are the houses different?

