

Goal -A happy chatter and confident communicator

First milestone	To happily talk in sentences in focussed and play sessions showing an increasing vocabulary.
Second milestone	To confidently talk to or in front of an audience (small group or class).
Third milestone	To talk in well-formed sentences including some connectives when describing familiar events or retelling well-known stories.
Final milestone	Who can listen carefully in different situations. Chat back and forth with friends and adults, ask relevant questions and use new vocabulary to explain ideas and feelings.