

KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER—A Passport to Florida.

What are the 7 continents called?
 What are the 5 oceans called?
 What is the difference between an ocean and the sea?

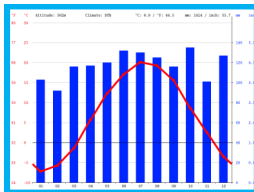

Where are the hottest / coldest parts of the globe?

Where is the USA?
 Where is Florida?

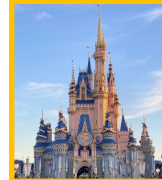

Human features of Florida
 Kennedy Space Centre, Disney World

Physical features of Florida
 Beaches, Peninsular

The Magic Kingdom is a theme park which is part of Disney World. This is a

Key Vocabulary

Country, England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland, United Kingdom, Continents, Atlantic Ocean, Pacific Ocean, Indian Ocean, Antarctic Ocean, Arctic Ocean, Europe, Africa, Asia, N and S America, Antarctica, Oceania, Irish Sea, North Sea, English Channel, Land, North, East, South, West, Railway, Island

What are the similarities and differences between the UK?

How does Cleve Hill compare to Florida?
 Can you see any similarities? What are the differences to the landscape?
 How does the currency differ?
 Are there any similarities with shops / other lifestyle events?

Substantive Knowledge:

- To know that different parts of the UK often experience different weather.
- To know that a weather forecast is when someone tries to predict the weather in the near future
- To know that life elsewhere in the world can have similarities and differences to life on Cleve Hill
- The Magic Kingdom is a theme park located in the state of Florida in the USA.
- Millions of people from around the world visit the Magic Kingdom every year.
- The USA is located in the continent of North America.
- There are 50 states in the USA.
- The state of Florida is a peninsula.
- A peninsula is a piece of land that is almost surrounded by water, but is connected to a larger land mass on one side.
- The Kennedy Space Centre is located on the east coast of Florida.
- Rockets are launched close to the Equator as the earth is rotating quickest there.
- Florida has a warmer, sunnier climate than the UK.
- Because of its location, close to the equator and warm waters, Florida is prone to hurricanes.

