

How does trade connect us? - KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

Substantive Knowledge:

- Know that trade is the buying and selling of goods and services we want and need.
- To know what the terms import and export mean.
- Know that products we use are imported as well as locally produced.
- Have some understanding of 'globalisation' in that the economies of different countries are connected.
- Know that consumer choice can impact on the economic activities of other countries.

What is trade?

How did people trade / barter in the past?

Where in the World is Kenya?

What are the key physical and human features of Africa?

Which foods are imported / exported?

Descriptive Knowledge:

Locate and name the continents and oceans on a map.

Begin to have an awareness of key locational lines of longitude and latitude. (equator).

Understand the similarities and differences between these in physical and human geography

Locate hot and cold areas in relation to the Equator and poles.

Confidently use maps, atlases and globes to identify regions studied. Begin to use 8 compass points

How does the climate in Kenya help the production of coffee beans?

Why is coffee a main export of Kenya?

How are coffee beans used as a currency?

From bean to jar:

What are the processes which occur and what is needed to get to a cup of coffee?

What is life like for a farmer in Kenya?

What are the similarities and differences to a farmer on Clee Hill?

Conduct interviews with family members on their preferences relating to fair trade.

What percentage of consumers buy fair trade?

Key Vocabulary:

Continent, Atlantic Ocean, Pacific Ocean, Indian Ocean, Antarctic Ocean, Arctic Ocean, Europe, Africa, Asia, N and S America, Antarctica, Oceania, North, East, South, West Capital City, Savanna, Watering hole Arid, Agriculture, Climate, Drought, Famine, Desert, Grassland, import, export, globalisation

Fair trade and coffee: What is fair trade and what does it mean?

How do we as a consumer make a decision on whether to buy fair trade products or not?

