

KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER—Queen Elizabeth II

How might history remember Queen Elizabeth II?

How have the perceptions of Queen Elizabeth II been influenced by changing technology?

Christmas day message

Key Vocabulary:

Century, decade, source, civilisations, monarchy

Televised coronation

Message to evacuees.

First Tweet by a reigning British Monarch

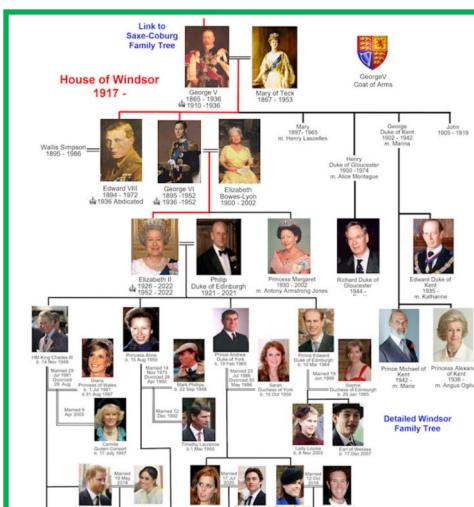

Instagram

Why did the Queen become the Queen?

Who are the royal family?

Can you trace her family back through to her grandparents?

What other British monarchs do we know about?

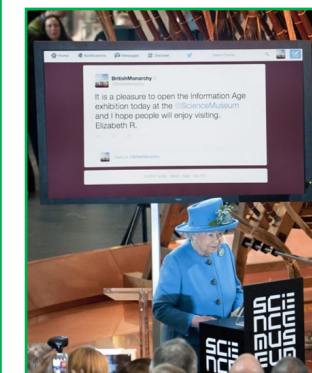

How do these compare to Queen Elizabeth II's pictures?

What is the role of the monarch? What do they do? How are they different to / connected to the government?

Have these changed what we feel / think towards Queen Elizabeth II and the royal family? How? Does it make them feel more relatable?

How do some of the previous monarchs compare to Elizabeth II? Are their portraits a true reflection of what they looked like? .

Substantive Knowledge:

Know that our monarch is head of the Church of England.

Know that Henry VIII created the Church of England and reasons why it was created

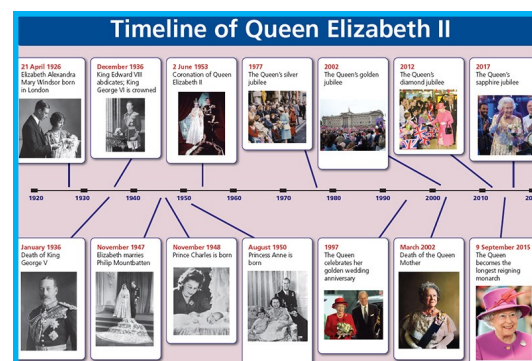

Know that Britain has been ruled by a Monarch with absolute power before and how this compares to the modern day.

Explain the impact of the rise and fall of the British Empire on people's freedom and independence.

Disciplinary Knowledge:

Comment with confidence on a range of different sources. Understand how Queen Elizabeth II was depicted.

Explain reasons why a particular person was of particular significance. Explain how it is possible to have different interpretations of events.

Who was Queen Elizabeth?

What were the key events in Queen Elizabeth's life and when did they occur?

Before technology of cameras this was the only way they could be visually represented and they had much more power in how they were represented.

The monarch has various roles relating to the government such as appointing and removing Prime Ministers, dissolving parliament so that an election can take place and signing off on new laws.