Reception – An independent problem solver
First milestone	They are able to make their own decisions, come up with their own ideas and try to involve other's ideas too. To understand boundaries and follow class rules and know why they are important. To begin to find solutions to quarrels and rivalries. To manage their own personal needs, such as using the toilet and washing their hands, with limited support. To make links between ideas and to persevere when things get tricky.
Sophisticated vocabulary	Boundaries, rules
Second milestone	Listen appropriately to instructions and use these accordingly to complete tasks with increasing determination, confidence and perseverance. Stay safe online – learning through stories.
Sophisticated vocabulary	Instruction,
Third milestone	To manage their own personal needs independently including changing for PE and Forest School. To have a 'have a go' attitude when approaching all new activities however tricky with increasing resilience.
Sophisticated vocabulary
Final milestone	To confidently try new activities showing determination to complete a goal and show resilience when facing challenges. To be able to show patience and control when waiting for what they want. To be more confident in finding solutions to quarrels and disputes.
Sophisticated Vocabulary	Quarrels, disputes,